RESTORATION IN GEORGIA—DISPATCH FROM THE PRESIDENT.—The following is the dispatch sent by President Johnson to the Governor of Georgia:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Washington, D. C., October 28, 1865.—To James Johnson, Provisional Governor, Milledgeville, Georgia: Your dispatch has been received. The people of Georgia should not hesitate one single moment in repudiating every single dollar of debt created for the purpose of aiding the rebellion against the Government of the United States. It will not do to levy and collect taxes from a State and people that are loyal and in the Union, to pay a debt that was created to aid in taking them out, and thereby subverting the Constitution of the United States.

I do not believe the great mass of the people of the State of Georgia, when left uninfluenced, will ever submit to the payment of a debt which was the main cause of bringing on their past and present suffering—the result of the rebellion.

Those who invested their capital in the creation of this debt must meet their fate and take it as one of the inevitable results of the rebellion, though it may seem hard to them. It should at once be made known, at home and abroad, that no debt contracted for the purpose of dissolving the Union, can or ever will be paid by taxes levied on the people for such purpose.

ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

FOREIGN NEWS.—We have advices from Europe to the 22d ult., by the steamship Jura, which reached New York yesterday.—Lord Palmerston was to have been buried quite privately on the 25th. All the English journals continue to mourn his loss. Earl Russell had undertaken the task of reconstructing the Ministry, but the London Times expresses the opinion that the augury is very difficult. It says: "A new Parliament, and complications that may lead to war, and a new Administration, constitute a new and inscrutable state of affairs, for no one can tell how parties will now be divided until after the meeting of Parliament." The News calls for the selection of Mr. Gladstone as a member of the Ministry and leader in the House of Commons. Mr. Seward's alleged ultimatum simply intimates to the French Government a fear that Congress will demand a resort to extreme measures, if additional troops are sent to Mexico. The cholera has almost entirely disappeared at Madrid, and is stationary at Paris. The Emperor had visited the Hotel Dieu to see that the patients were well cared for. Garibaldi has declined a nomination to the Italian Parliament. Cotton unchanged sales of 10,000 bales. Breadstuffs firm and slightly advanced. Corn quiet. Provisions firm; stock scarce.

MODEL FARMING.—The New Bedford Mercury tells a story of a retired merchant, who had bought a farm on Long Island, who was visited one day by an old friend who wished to see the marvellous improvements and the splendid stock of which he had heard so much boasting. After a fatiguing walk over the premises, the city farmer invited his weary friend into the house. "There," said he, "you have seen the best farm in the State; now sit down and rest, and take something. I have milk and champagne. Take your choice; they cost the same." [The experience of almost every one will call to mind, some friend or acquaintance, who has a passion for "model farming"—some amateur who would spend his money in farming—of which he knows nothing—and in doing which he is pretty sure to raise potatoes and turnips, which cost as much as oranges, and have milk about equal in price to champagne.]

The terrible amount of destruction caused by the recent storm along the coast, may be best estimated by the simple statement that the steamer Fung Shuey, on her passage from New York to New Orleans, passed ashore, with their masts standing, between Hillsboro' Inlet and Sulboro' Lighthouse, thirty-two brigs and one ship, and saw the wrecks of five vessels that were either sunk or dismantled.

Secretary McCulloch has ordered the issue of a large amount of five cent fractional currency.
